

Learning Strategies – Assistive Technology Apps

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Self-Testing (Practice Test/Quizzes) |  | Quizlet: Free – An app that creates flashcards or can download a set of flashcards of the subject of your choice with optional audio for proper pronunciation of flashcards. |
| |  | SuperCard: Free – An app that can take flash card sets from three different providers, create a variety of flash cards using pictures, drawing tools, and text. It also provides three different quiz types to assist with self testing: Multiple choice, Honour System, and Exact text. |
| Study Buddy |  | Viber: Free – Use your Smart phone for free call or text capabilities using a wifi connection to call a study buddy to help with your test. |
| |  | ChatNow for Facebook: Free – Using your Smart device, connect with friends in this messenger tool that can send documents, pictures, audio, and other medias to assist with studying. |
| Digital Recorders, iPods |  | Smart Voice Recorder: Free - This app allows you to record in high quality audio, share on different media such as Gmail, Dropbox, and Evernote, and it also gives an option to set the recording as an alarm, notification, or ringtone. |
| |  | Voice Over Speak Selection: Free - All iPods, iPhones and iPads have this feature built in. Users can turn it on through Settings, General, Assistive Technology. Most students use it on the Triple Click. |
| |  | Garage Band: Free - Use as a simple voice recording or complex creator of projects including music. |
| |  | Voice Memo: Free – Part of the built-in functions of a smart device, this can be used for basic recording needs. |
| Mind Mapping |  | Simple Mind Mapping – Free: A mind mapping app that gives capabilities to share in various formats (Dropbox, Evernote, JPEG camera roll). |
| |  | Inspiration - Free version allows 5 brainstorming sessions. 9.99 version is unlimited: Mind mapping technology used to assist with organizing ideas. |
| |  | Workflowy - Free: Notes and list maker that can be utilized to create outlines for writing activities. |

| | | |
|-----------------|---|---|
| Rhyme and Rhyme |  | Garage Band: Free - Use as a simple voice recording or complex creator of projects including music. |
| |  | Audacity Portable: Free – This app can be used for song making, dialogues, and other audio projects. |

| | | |
|----------|---|--|
| Acronyms |  | Acronym Generator: Free – Creates acronyms to assist with naming projects, studying, and has different language capabilities. |
| |  | Acronym Creator: Free – Similar to the latter, but suited for iPad / Mac capabilities. |

| | | |
|---------------|---|--|
| Visualization |  | Brainpop Feature Movie: Free with optional in-app subscription – Explore various educational animated shorts on many different school subjects with an optional quiz at the end to test your knowledge. |
| |  | Khan App Pro: Free – An app that features videos on a variety of math, science, art history, and other from grades K-12. The app also has a feature of watching playlists offline. |
| |  | Explain Everything: 2.99 - Used for presentations and annotating and explain what students were thinking. |
| |  | MyScript Calculator: Free - There are many calculators available but this one allows the user to handwrite the problem and get an answer. |