

MONEY MONEY MONEY

The Learning Disabilities Association of Sudbury will be hosting a number of workshops throughout the month of March with guest presenters from the CIBC.

This is a great opportunity to have CIBC Financial experts Renee McCormick and Angelina Kasunich answer any questions you may have.

Bright Beginnings- Creating an Education Savings Plan for Your Family - Key trends in post-secondary education costs, education funding options and saving strategies, government incentives and withdrawal options and tips on how parents can help their kids build their financial knowledge.

(Parent Workshop – March 10, 2021 at 6:30 p.m.)

Kids' Banking 101 – ABC's of money, basic banking tips, and how to grow your money through saving and investing.

(Elementary Student Workshop – March 17, 2021 at 6:30 p.m.)

Navigating your Finances in a Cashless World - Tips on how to navigate a cashless world, including: creating a budget, simplifying payment methods, using credit responsibly, implementing a cash-only diet and protecting your information against fraudulent activities.

(High School Student Workshop – March 24, 2021 at 6:30 p.m.)

Registered Disability Savings Plan - If you are eligible for a Disability Tax Credit you can take advantage of this savings opportunity to help plan for the future.

(General Audience – March 31, 2021 at 6:30 p.m.)
