Talking trades with Paul Lafrance and his daughter Promise!

In recognition of Learning Disabilities Awareness Month, student(s) in grades 7-12, and their supporters, are invited to a free, interactive, virtual workshop on October 14th at 6:00 p.m. HGTV's Paul Lafrance and his daughter Promise will be talking about their journeys in the trades. Cambrian's own Colleen Heidman will also present "Pathways to Careers in Trades" and there will be a presentation on the Dual Credit program, and the Ontario Youth Apprenticeship Program (OYAP), and the Glenn Crombie Centre for Accessibility and Wellness. All attendees will have a chance to win a Lenovo IdeaPad 3 Touchscreen Laptop.

The event is brought to you by Cambrian College, The Learning Disabilities Association of Sudbury, the Rainbow District School Board, the Sudbury Catholic District School Board, The School College Work Initiative, and the Ontario Post-secondary Access & Inclusion Program (OPAIP).

Register for the event before October 11 for a chance to win a $100 gift card!
