SUDBURY, ON – The Learning Disabilities Association of Sudbury and the Elizabeth Barrett Browning Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire (IODE) announce the second winner of a 2023 IODE Student Transition Scholarship is Hunter Dominelli.

The IODE scholarship is awarded to a student pursuing a full-time program in the fall of their graduating year at an accredited post-secondary institution valued at $500.00.

"Thank you to the Elizabeth Barrett Browning Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire (IODE) for their generosity in offering a second scholarship to a student identified with a learning disability, and we applaud Hunter Dominelli for his dedication to his studies and reaching this milestone," says Angelina Wiwczor, Chair, LDA Sudbury.

Hunter graduated from Bishop Alexander Carter Catholic Secondary School, and was accepted in the Electrical Engineering Technologist Program at Cambrian College. We wish Hunter great success in his future endeavors.
